POLICE ARREST FRISCO MAN FOR INDECENT EXPOSURE

(April 1, 2005 – Frisco)

Detectives arrested a Frisco resident early Thursday morning and charged him with Indecent Exposure. Gregory Alan Morales, 41, of Frisco, was taken into custody after a warrant was issued. The charge stems from two earlier reports to Police. The first was from a woman who reported that as she was getting gasoline at a local 7 Eleven store, she observed a man sitting in his car next to her. She reported that the man was masturbating as he watched her, then moved to another gas pump and began watching another woman. That witness was interviewed by detectives and was able to identify Morales from a color photo line-up.

The second report was from a woman who told police that she and her daughter had walked into a women's restroom at the Warren Sports Complex and saw a man standing inside with his zipper down. She said that the man claimed that he was in the wrong restroom and fled the scene. The witness was also able to identify Morales as that man, however she did not actually witness a criminal act being committed.

After the warrant was issued for the first incident, Morales was taken into custody and posted a $10,000 bond. According to the warrant affidavit, Morales has previously been arrested for Disorderly Conduct for window peeping and was arrested on two other occasions for Indecent Exposure.

Indecent Exposure is a Class B Misdemeanor, punishable by up to 6 months in jail and a $2,000 fine.
